Instructions - Parents to ensure that the child reads the summary of the chapter given very carefully and then answer the exercises given below.

The story is about those times when the tame animals were wild. The Dog, the Cat and the Sheep were wild and they all lived in a corner of the earth.

At that time, the Man was wild too - he was dreadfully wild, wandering about here and there sleeping on the branches of trees. He didn't even begin to tame till he met the Woman and she told him that she did not like him being so wild. One day the woman picked out a nice dry Cave, scattered dry sand on the floor and she lit a nice fire of wood at the back of the Cave. She hung a dried wild - horse skin across the opening of the cave as a curtain and said to the man "Wipe your feet dear when you come in and now we will keep house".

That night the woman made delicious wild sheep, flavoured it with wild garlic and pepper. She also cooked wild duck stuffed with wild rice and herbs like mint and coriander. They finished their meal with wild red cherries.
