SUMMARY OF THE LESSON

Mother Teresa was a nun and lived in a convent in Kolkata. Whenever she went out on the streets, she was unhappy to see many poor people, also sad to see the old and sick people and children without parents. She worked for the poor and homeless and said that everyone was God's child and was equal in his eyes, rich or poor, educated or uneducated. She took the old, sick and the orphan children into the shelter, where she could take care, in spite of no money in hand. She didn't want anyone to suffer, rather many people helped her by giving all the necessary things for the needy.

The people believed that Mother Teresa was a saint. Her motto was "I will treat all people with love and kindness"
