TOPIC-ROLE OF COMPUTERS IN LEARNING AND TEACHING

Computer is a wonderful tool. It has made learning of the subjects very interesting and friendly for students. Let us now meet this wonderful tool and look at its role in teaching and learning-

Lot of Information at a Click-

A computer with internet acts as an ocean of information.

Both students and teachers can benefit from it. They can search and get answers on any question just at a click.

Teachers can get ideas on activities, quizzes, and question papers. Students can get to know new ideas of doing homework, worksheets etc.

Better Presentation-

With the help of a computer, information can be easily modified and presented in a better way.

Use of Audio and Video Aids-

Making teaching more attractive by adding colours, sounds and movements in the clips.

Making films, designing and printing newspapers, magazines, and books.

Use of smart class has simplified the learning in a play-way method.

Online Teaching and Testing-

Now, education is not limited to the classrooms only. Teachers and students can interact with each other even if they are miles apart.
