If you remove any one layer of the burger, the taste would become bad. So a child must have all the above mentioned ingredients to make a good paragraph.

Let us take an example that we need to write a paragraph on "My Father" then the steps would be-

1. First part- Name of your father, his occupation.

2. Second part- What type of a person he is, how does he take care of the family, his hobbies, what are your feelings towards him.

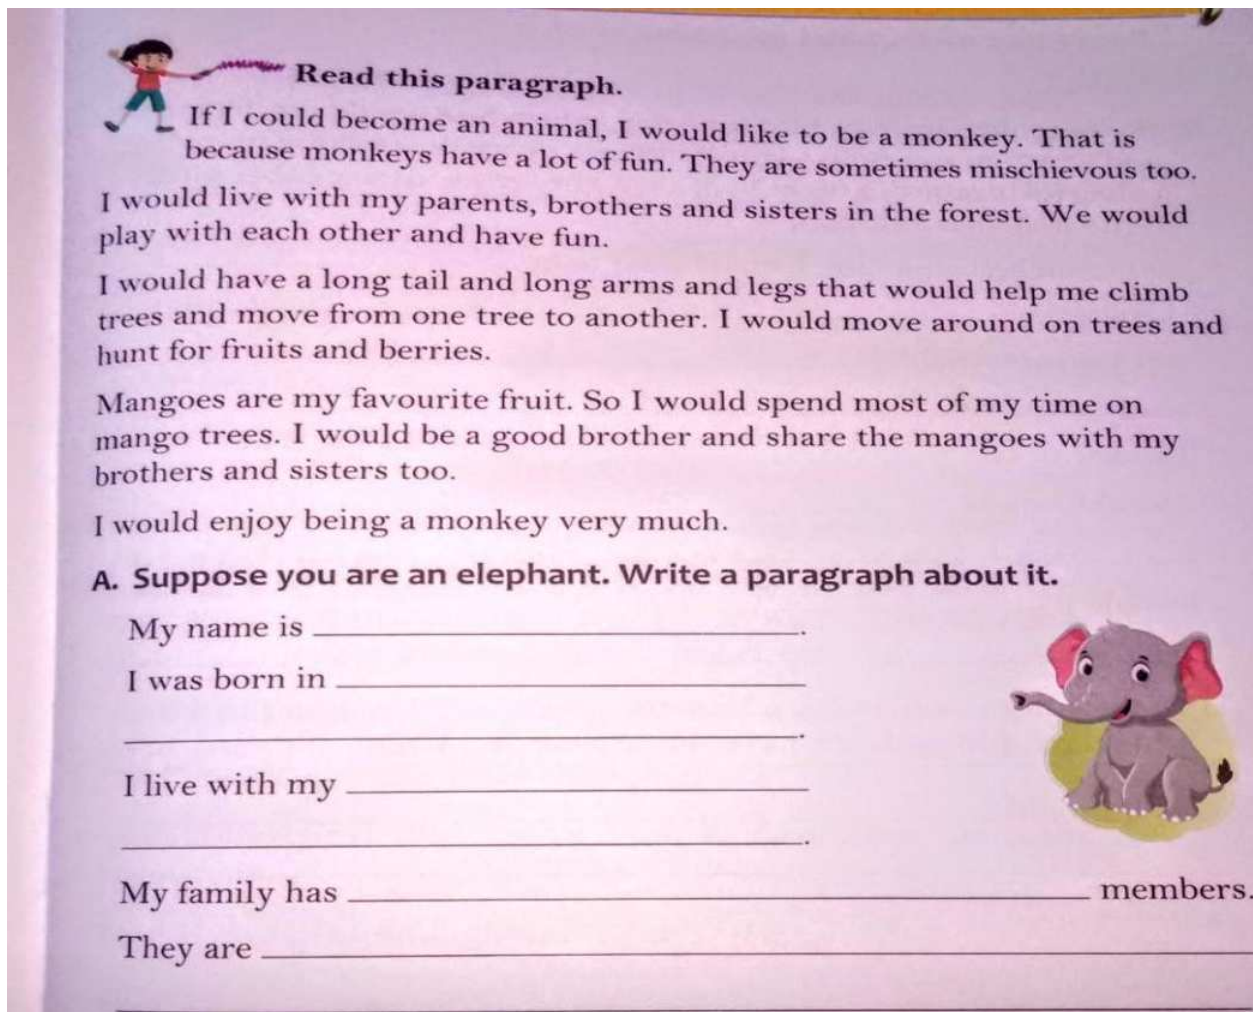

3. Third part- a positive note for your father.

Let us take an example, suppose you have to write a paragraph on "My Father".

My Father

My father's name is Mr. Rajesh Singh. He is a loving person. He takes care of the family. He is an Engineer by profession and is a very hardworking person. He is an intelligent person. If I could become an animal, I would like to be a monkey. That is because monkeys have a lot of fun. They are sometimes mischievous too. I would live with my parents, brothers and sisters in the forest. We would play with each other and have fun. I would have a long tail and long arms and legs that would help me climb trees and move from one tree to another. I would move around on trees and hunt for fruits and berries. Mangoes are my favourite fruit. So I would spend most of my time on mango trees. I would be a good brother and share the mangoes with my brothers and sisters too. I would enjoy being a monkey very much.
