Trees

Trees are beautiful. Some trees are big with thick branches like the neem , peepal and banyan trees. Some are thin and very tall like the eucalyptus. Some trees are short. We get fruits from trees like mangoes, oranges and apples. Trees like the gulmohar and amaltas have beautiful flowers. Some trees provide very good shade for people and animals. Trees also help in keeping the earth cool. They help in keeping the air clean. Trees take in carbon dioxide from the air and give out oxygen. Human beings and animals need fresh air and oxygen to live. Trees help in protecting the soil. They also stop strong winds. We depend on trees and plants for many things. Trees give us fruits, medicines, oils, coir, rubber, cotton, gum and many other things. We get wood from trees to make houses and furniture. Paper is also made from trees. Forests provide food and shelter to animals. They provide a nesting place for birds. Our earth looks beautiful because of trees. Trees need care. These days, people are cutting down trees without a thought about the harm they are causing the environment and all human beings. We can help to make the world a better place by planting more trees.
