A. Pick out Common and Proper Nouns from the following paragraph. (10)

In June, Simon asked his mother if she could buy him a dog. Simon had always wanted a dog named Charlie, and now that he was fourteen years old, he thought that he was old enough to have his own pet. Simon's mother told him that if he babysat his little brother, Jack, the whole summer, and showed responsibility; then she would let him get a dog when the next school year started. Every day since then, Simon woke up early every morning, and went out delivering newspapers. He then came home, and babysat Jack until his mother came home from work in the evening. After the summer ended, Simon's mother was impressed with his dedication and decided to get him a dog. Simon wanted to adopt a dog from the shelter, so he and his mother went together to look for a good dog. After looking at a few dogs, Simon decided to adopt a small Jack Russell terrier. Simon finally fulfilled his wish of having a dog named Charlie.
