Paper 5: Crafts 'A'

Question 1: Design a pictorial poster for an NGO encouraging people to feed and donate for stray animals.

- An NGO is striving hard to ensure that stray animals like dogs, cats and cattle do not die of hunger and thirst during these times of crisis and scorching summer heat.
- You can write the name of an NGO of your own choice
- Incorporate the words 'All Lives Matter' in neat and bold calligraphy.
- It is compulsory to make both human and animal figures on your poster.
- You can use watercolours, acrylic colours, glitter pens and/or sketch pens.
- Work to the full extent of your sheet.
- For inspiration and reference purposes refer to images attached on the last page.

The illustration depicts two women engaged in animal care in an urban environment. On the left, a woman with long black hair, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt and dark pants, sits on the ground. She is holding a blue bag and looking towards a small yellow cat sitting next to her. On the right, another woman with her hair in a bun, wearing a red and white shirt and dark pants, is kneeling and feeding an orange cat from a bowl. The background features several doghouses, stylized trees, and city buildings under a blue sky with clouds. The scene is decorated with various geometric shapes and patterns, including circles, squares, and lines.
